

I was raised in Spokane, Washington and lived there for 18 years. When I was living in China I discovered I wanted to become a teacher. While living in China I taught many different age groups, but kindergarten was my favorite. I earned my bachelor's degree in Early Childhood Education from Brigham Young University. I am very happy I made the decision to become a teacher. I love children and the way their minds work and think, they have so much knowledge and such a love of learning! Singing and interacting with children is my favorite way to teach. I truly believe our children are the future, which is part of the reason I teach. My goal is to help all my students grow and learn every day.
