

My name is Jessica Mitchell. You may have heard of the legendary Miss Bridenstine... well that's me! I got married last November.

I grew up in Cache Valley, Utah. When I was in high school I moved to Westminster, Colorado located just between Boulder and Denver. I returned to Utah to study at Brigham Young University. I received my Bachelor's Degree in Elementary Education. I taught fifth grade at Southland Elementary in Jordan School District. Last year, I taught sixth grade here at Freedom. I have loved being here and look forward to another great year!

I love theater- acting, directing or watching. I have acted in over twenty plays and musicals, and directed two children's plays. My favorite part of acting is the funky costumes- whether it be an enormous Victorian style dress stuffed with pillows or a completely plastic chicken suit or a three foot tall wig (think Marge Simpson gone blond) I have done it all! Or should I say worn it all? I also enjoy public speaking and debate. I love being out doors gardening, picnicking or hiking. My greatest hiking adventure was a grueling twenty miles in one day.
